

International
Functional Electrical Stimulation Society

Founding Meeting
Vienna, Austria
19 August 1995

The Champagne Toast is sponsored by the A. E. Mann Foundation for Scientific Research, the Pritzker Institute of Medical Engineering, and personally by Robert Jaeger.

AGENDA

- I. Introduction and Welcome
- II. Roll Call and Certification of Founding Members
- III. Presentation of Bylaws for Adoption by Founding Members
- IV. Presentation of Initial Monetary Gift to the Society
- V. Presentation of the Ballot for Officers and Board of Directors for Election
- VI. Induction Ceremony of Newly Elected Officers and Directors
- VII. First Business Meeting of the Society
- VIII. Champagne Toast in Celebration of Founding

Much of our modern work in functional electrical stimulation, particularly in the reanimation of paralyzed extremities, has its roots in the pioneering experiments of Luigi Galvani in the late 1700s.